

An event to kick off Natural Family Planning Awareness Week

Building Strong Marriages with NFP

Engaged and looking to build a marriage on a strong foundation? Married and wanting some additional tools in your marital toolbox to shore up your marriage? Come kick off National Natural Family Planning Awareness Week and explore what Natural Family Planning, one of the best tools for a long lasting marriage, can do for your marriage.

Donna Dausman will be speaking on "Building Strong Marriages with NFP" at Holy Trinity Parish in Westmont on Friday, July 22, 2011 from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Donna is the former director of the Office for Marriage and Family of the Springfield Diocese. She serves on the national advisory board for the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Natural Family Planning Program, and has recently agreed to be an advisor to their Committee on Laity, Marriage, Family Life and Youth.

If you are unable to attend on Friday evening, Donna will repeat her presentation on Saturday, July 23, 2011 from 10:00 a.m. to 12 noon at the St. Charles Pastoral Center in Romeoville.

Come enjoy wine and cheese in the evening or coffee & rolls in the morning, listen to a great speaker, and learn about God's plan for your marriage!

Registration is requested for both events, and the fee is $10 per individual or $15 per couple. For more information about these events and/or to register, please use the form below or call 815-838-5334.
