DISPENSATION is respectfully requested from the matrimonial impediment of:

Disparity of Cult (one party not baptized)

Disparity of Cult ad cautelam
(doubtful baptism of one party)

Consanguinity (c. 1091)

Degree collateral line: _____
(Describe relationship between parties)

Affinity (c. 1092)

Degree Direct Line: _____
(Describe the relationship between parties)

Other (Specify): _____
(e.g., public propriety, adoption, etc.)

PERMISSION is respectfully requested for:

Marriage of Mixed Religion (c. 1124) (Both parties are baptized Christians, but only one is a Catholic.)

[Pastors and associate pastors have the faculty to permit marriages of mixed religion when there is proof of baptism for both parties and neither party has been previously married, even if invalidly.]

Canonical reasons for this dispensation/permission:

_____ (1) Spiritual welfare of the faithful

_____ (2) Well-founded hope that the non-Catholic will enter full communion with the Church

_____ (3) Danger of attempted invalid marriage

_____ (4) Convalidation

_____ (5) Other (Specify) _____
