

How to Choose & Use Catholic Internet Sites

(adapted from Sister Caroline Ceverny, SSJ)

- What is the address?
- Who owns the site?
- Is the site well-constructed? Is it easy to navigate?
- When was the site created?
- What is the underlying mission of the organization?
- Who is the source or author?
- What is the quality and depth of the material?
- Is this reliable Catholic teaching?
- Is it fact, opinion, story or interpretation?
- Is the material plagiarized or has copyright law been followed?
- What are you looking for? Why are you at the site?

An Internet Instruction Activity

- Locate a good web site or several sites, related to a unit of instruction
- Develop an activity requiring students to use the site(s)
- Assign the activity to be completed during the week
- Have students share their work, questions, & new insights at the next class
