All those who have lost a spouse, either through death or divorce, and those who minister to them, are warmly invited to join us on Saturday, March 28, for a day with Fr. Richard Gilbert.

Fr. Gilbert is an Anglican priest and author who has devoted his life to helping people through the stages of grief. As the Executive Director of the World Pastoral Care Center, Fr. Gilbert has spoken throughout the United States and internationally. He has a PhD in Pastoral Psychology, is a Fellow of The American Association of Grief Counselors, and is an advisor for the National Catholic Ministry to the Bereaved. Fr. Gilbert's background in spirituality, grief counseling, and even his work with people suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder, will all be employed in his presentations.

On March 28 Fr. Gilbert will help us come to a greater awareness that the death of a relationship is the death of a dream. Our "sense of self" is deeply shaken, but, with the help of the God who loves us forever, we can be transformed through loss to become a new creation.

We start with 9:00 a.m. check-in and conclude with a 4:00 p.m. liturgy that satisfies the Sunday obligation, celebrated by Bishop Sartain. The $35.00 fee includes, lunch, refreshments, and materials. Please use the enclosed registration form or call The Center for Family Ministry (815-838-5334).
