

LITURGICAL INCULTURATION AND CELEBRATION IN A MULTICULTURAL SETTING

Liturgical Certification Program Workshop Series, 2010

CONTENT

Inculturation in a Multicultural Setting: A conversation about the place of culture in the celebration of the Liturgy.

It is said that the Gospel can never be proclaimed apart from a specific culture. Word and gesture, food and music, clothing and art are not only elements of cultural identity but also the tools we use to express ourselves as we stand together before God in worship. If this is so, then what influences does culture have on the liturgical living out of the Gospel? How does culture shape our liturgical prayer? How can our liturgical prayer influence the culture in which we live? These and more questions will be explored in this workshop.
