Short insights into various aspects of the spiritual journey. These segments were created especially for brief meditations to precede meetings.

BREAD AND WINE / WATER & SPIRIT / THEY SHALL SEE SREX0046 17 Min. JSA

BREAD AND WINE - About bread and wine and us, and a little more. A visual and musical meditation for prayer and reflection. THEY SHALL SEE - About purity of heart, the clear eye that makes all reality transparent to the divine. The images reveal the inner patterns of ordinary elements; water, air and light, and their roles in the dynamic growth process of nature. Quietly, poetically, the visuals and music build to an experience of affirmation, of joy in perceiving 'the immense simplicity of things. WATER AND SPIRIT - Visual and musical meditation suitable for use around themes of Baptism, the Holy Spirit, the mystery of life, the presence of God, the beauty of creation...

CELEBRATE WHATS RIGHT WITH THE WORLD PSXX0041 24 Min. SA

DeWitt Jones, motivational trainer and longtime photographer for National Geographic, presents an uplifting and affirming program of reaching one's full potential by focusing on the positive in any situation. Even though Jones does not refer to God, this video is imbued with several core values of Catholic identity: that life and people are essentially good, that life is to be affirmed, embraced and celebrated, by God's grace we can improve our lives and those of others we serve, thereby bettering the institutions in which we work. Effective for renewal ministry for principals, DRE's, teachers, catechists, parish councils and other adult organizations as discussion starter or retreat context.

FACE, THE: JESUS IN ART SBCX0054 120 Min. SA

No single figure has influenced global art and culture in the last 2000 years than Jesus Christ. This documentary traces the history of portrayals of Jesus and its influence on the Church and society.

FINE FEATHERS YMJX0015 7 Min. EMJSA

Evelyn Lambart's colorful cutout animation through music and drama, conveys the moral message of two birds that replace their feathers with leaves and branches from trees and plants. Then when a strong wind blows their new finery away they begin to appreciate their original attire and scurry to recover their original body parts. Because it is parable style this piece can engender several interpretations and applications.

GOD'S GRANDEUR PSXX0022 4 Min. SA

This visual interpretation of Gerard Manley Hopkins' poem about the presence of the spirit in creation, is narrated as the camera leads us to contemplate what unfolds before our eyes.

HOARDER, THE CVCX0101 8 Min. MJSA

Evelyn Lambart's colorful cutout animation through music and drama, about a bird traveling around the earth stealing from all the other birds. Finally the bird travels to the sun and steals all of its rays. Darkness covers the land and all wither for lack of light. Finally one of the other birds discovers parts of the sun's rays and begins to replace the pieces. The hoarder realizing that this would bring back the light, assists in the recovery and finally all of the sun is restored. The hoarder then returns all of the stolen treasures and harmony and happiness is restored.
