

on the Road to Emmaus

sharing the meal that equips us for the Mission

WE WILL FOCUS ON the actions of taking, blessing, breaking, and sharing. These eucharistic actions not only invite us into life in Christ, but equip us for our ministry in our communities. This workshop will provide inspiration as well as practical ideas to take home.

DATE: Thursday, August 12, 2010

LOCATION: St. Charles Pastoral Center

PRESENTER: Cackie (Catherine) Upchurch

COST: $15 (includes lunch and morning hospitality)

SCHEDULE FOR THE DAY:

9 AM Mass with Bishop Sartain

9:45 On the Road to Emmaus Workshop

12:30 Lunch

1:15 Cluster Meetings

CACKIE UPCHURCH is a respected writer and speaker on scriptural themes. For the past 12 years, Cackie has served as the director of Little Rock Scripture Study. Since 2001 she has been associate editor of The Bible Today. Cackie has presented at numerous national and diocesan forums (including LA Congress in 2010), as well as internationally. She holds an M.A. in Theology from University of St. Michael's College (Toronto).

RSVP BY AUGUST 5 TO:

Mary Maloney mmaloney@dioceseofjoliet.org

Send payment to: Religious Education Office
101 W. Airport Road; Romeoville, IL 60446

Sponsored by the diocesan Religious Education Office, with assistance from RCL-Benziger.