DOING GOOD

MINISTRY IN A

“GOOGLING” WORLD

A wonderful day designed for pastors, priests, deacons, adult faith directors, youth ministers, religious education directors, principals and other parish staff, to help them learn about the most effective tools to reach people with the Gospel message in today's electronic culture.

Schedule of the Day

8:30	Registration begins / Exhibits open / Breakfast provided
9:30	Opening Prayer
9:50	Presentation — Part I “Talkin bout my Generation”
10:45	Break / Exhibits open
11:05	Presentation — Part II “people, people, people”
11:55	Lunch / Exhibits open
1:15	Presentation — Part 3 Tools for your Ministry
2:30	Closing Prayer

Featuring Keynote: Mike Hayes

Mike Hayes co-founded Busted Halo ministries in December 2001 and serves as the managing editor for BustedHalo.com. He is also author of Googling God (Paulist Press 2007), a guide for ministry to adults in their 20's and 30's. Mike is the president of the board of directors for the National Catholic Young Adult Ministry Association. For the past five years Hayes has worked within the Catholic Church trying to discern the needs of adults (both married and single) and has uncovered a wealth of material pertaining to their identity, longings, beliefs, affiliations, and vocational pursuits.
