

Living Mission

Wherever we are!

Living mission is truly the “Art of Accompaniment”, which is highlighted in this quote from Pope Francis in The Joy of the Gospel, “The Church will have to initiate everyone—priests, religious and laity—into this ‘art of accompaniment’ which teaches us to remove our sandals before the sacred ground of the other.” This session will focus on two important aspects that help us to be able to remove our sandals in respect and sensitivity: Understanding Mission and Cultural Sensitivity.

Saturday, June 3, 2017, 9:00am—1:00pm.

Our presentator is:

Julie Lupien, Executive Director of FROM MISSION TO MISSION, has supported missionaries preparing for and returning from mission since 2002. She served with the Volunteer Missionary Movement in Zimbabwe and St. Kitts. She is the author of What About Short-term Mission? and co-author of Remaining Faithful: How do I keep my experience alive? Julie was the first recipient of the Pope Francis Mission Award presented at Mission Congress 2015.
