“Discipleship begins when you sense that Jesus Christ loves you and is calling you to follow Him. You are a disciple if you, in turn, acknowledge that He really is the Son of God and the true source of your life here and for eternity, that you love Him more than anyone else, that you want to form your daily life and its decisions around Him, and that you want to talk about Him with others.”

(Excerpt from “Go,” He Said)

Join other parish leaders to

- ◆ Hear Bishop speak about his vision for Missionary Discipleship.
- ◆ Reflect on your personal role and how you are equipped for this mission.
- ◆ Discuss with your peers in ministry the three Key Principles from the letter for moving toward Missionary Discipleship.
- ◆ Look critically at current structures in your parish and local area and consider change, opportunities for inter-parish collaboration and more.
- ◆ Brainstorm strategies and share resources.

Jesus said go and make disciples, but so often we just sit and make excuses.
